MACDONALD'S
ENGLISH DIRECTORY
AND GAZETTEER.

1898 EDITION.

THE Work contains the Names and Addresses of more Manufacturers, Merchants, Brokers, Agents, Dealers, and others connected with Trade and Commerce than any other Directory issued from the British Press. The mass of information it embraces cannot otherwise be obtained without an expenditure of over £40 on Local and County Directories; and as many of these are issued at intervals of several years, their information is not so recent and reliable as that given in a work like the ENGLISH DIRECTORY AND GAZETTEER, which is compiled and printed annually.

The First Section of the Work consists of a Trades Directory of London and Suburbs, giving authentic lists of all the Trades and Businesses of the Metropolis.

The Second Section contains a separate and exhaustive Trades Directory for each of the principal Provincial Cities and Towns, and arranged as follows:—

Birmingham	Gateshead	Nottingham
Blackburn	Halifax	Oldham
Bolton	Huddersfield	Plymouth
Bradford	Hull	Portsmouth
Brighton	Leeds	Preston
Bristol	Leicester	Sheffield
Burnley	Liverpool	Sunderland
Cardiff	Manchester	Swansea
Derby	Newcastle-on-Tyne	and
Devonport	Norwich	Wolverhampton

The Third Section gives Local Trades Directories for all Towns and Villages of importance, these are grouped alphabetically under their various Counties, and the Counties are also arranged in alphabetical order to facilitate reference.

The Fourth Section is a concise GAZETTEER OF ENGLAND AND WALES, giving the location, population, and other local statistics for the Cities, Towns, and Villages, with Postal, Telegraphic, Railway, and Shipping information.

Every effort that can possibly be made by a large and experienced staff of compilers is put forth ungrudgingly, and regardless of trouble and expense, to ensure the correctness of the Work.

Compiled, Printed, and Published by the Proprietors,

WILLIAM MACDONALD & COMPANY, LIMITED, EDINBURGH & LONDON.

MACDONALD'S Scottish Directory and Gazetteer.

The only Trades Directory of Scotland issued in the Kingdom. The work is published annually the whole of the information being thoroughly revised every year by a staff of qualified Compilers solely employed on the Company's publications, and the work thus brought up to date stands unrivalled as the Standard Directory for Scotland.

OPINIONS OF THE BRITISH PRESS.

The Times

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—The work which Messrs Kelly have done so long and so successfully for London and for England and Wales, Messrs Wm. Macdonald & Co., Ltd., Edinburgh, have accomplished for Scotland and for its two capitals. Many thousand names have been added to this edition. All possible justice is done even to the most distant parts of Scotland. . . . The work is thoroughly business-like in its scope and object.

The Scotsman

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—The issue for the current year presents in a greatly enlarged form a work already favourably known to business men. The general arrangement of the directory remains the same as before; but its usefulness is materially increased by the addition of a large number of new names. . . . Much credit is due to the compilers for their enterprise and industry in collecting this information.

Glasgow Evening Citizen

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—The annual edition of this useful work has just been issued. It is constantly increasing in bulk and importance. . . . A work which is of high commercial value.

Edinburgh Evening News

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—The directory is a complete list of business and professional firms in Scotland. . . . A capital work of reference has been placed in the hands of the public.

Glasgow Evening News

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—This directory is an indispensable adjunct of every warehouse and office. It does for the whole of Scotland what local directories do for particular districts and cities, and its information is as reliable and accurate as it is extensive.

Birmingham Daily Gazette

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—Messrs William Macdonald & Co., Ltd., Edinburgh, the Kellys of North Britain, have just issued another annual and much-enlarged edition of their practical, useful, complete, and admirably compiled Directory. The indexes and classification are thorough, and the maps are excellent. Above all, the paper is far superior to that of most publications of the kind, and the book is stoutly bound.

Birmingham Daily Post

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—This useful work of reference will be welcomed by those who have dealings, commercial or friendly, with Scotland. The pains that have been taken to secure accuracy render it a valuable book of its kind.

Aberdeen Free Press

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—The work is a Trades Directory for the whole of Scotland, and must prove of great service to business and professional men. The present edition has been considerably enlarged and improved.

The European Mail

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—Grows in bulk as it grows in years. For accuracy of detail and completeness of information, we think the production second to none of a similar description. Altogether, the work will be found of immense value and usefulness to commercial men, advertisers, tourists, and others.

The Engineer

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—We have received a copy of the "Scottish Directory." It is very freely illustrated with a small engraving of the chief article of manufacture of many whose names are given, and the arrangement in subjects and names is in every way good.

Iron (London)

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—Messrs Wm. Macdonald & Co., Ltd., occupy in Scotland the position filled by Messrs Kelly & Co., in England and their "Scottish Directory and Gazetteer," although necessarily not so bulky as the "London Directory," will be found to be as carefully compiled.

The Bookseller

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—The work has been considerably enlarged, and entirely reset with new type. In the matter of paper and print it certainly leaves nothing to be desired. . . . The work of compilation has been carefully performed throughout.

Engineer and Iron Trades Advertiser

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—This bulky volume, like former issues will be found accurate and complete in its information, and should be welcome by commercial men as a reliable book of reference.

Financial Times

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—We have received a copy of the "Scottish Directory and Gazetteer." It is admirably arranged, and contains a vast amount of information indispensable to those who have—or aim at having—business relations with Scotland.

The Publishers' Circular

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—This work well maintains its previous excellence, and in some respects presents marked features of improvement. . . . For the general arrangement and accuracy of the volume we have nothing but praise.

National Guardian

MACDONALD'S SCOTTISH DIRECTORY.—The "Scottish Directory and Gazetteer" has just been published. . . . It stands, the book is a credit to the publishers and their staff through whose labours it has been compiled.

P R E F A C E.

THE issuing of another annual Edition of our SCOTTISH DIRECTORY AND GAZETTEER imposes upon us the pleasing duty of again tendering our sincere thanks to our numerous Subscribers and Friends for the steadily increased patronage now for so many years accorded to us, and which more than justifies our expectation that a practical and carefully-compiled Trades Directory for the whole of Scotland, issued at a moderate price, would secure the appreciation of the public.

That in a work so comprehensive there should be no error would be too much to expect ; but it is confidently hoped that mistakes are both few and unimportant, as neither care nor expense have been spared to have the information as recent and reliable as possible, and, by revision and copious enlargement, to render the work complete and accurate.

In obtaining the matter for the compilation of the present edition of the Directory very many names have been added to its lists. Our agents visited every City, Town, and Village in Scotland to verify, by personal application, every name it contains. Some idea may thus be formed of the labour and cost of collecting and arranging the information, and of the utility of the work as a reliable BOOK OF REFERENCE.

By the adoption of the latest product of mechanical genius in type-setting machinery, and other special plant, we are enabled to keep the type standing—thus lessening the cost of labour, reducing typographical errors to a minimum, and securing the general accuracy of the work—and to issue our Directory at less than half the price usually charged for similar publications. The price to British Subscribers remains 12s. 6d. as hitherto ; Colonial and Foreign Subscribers are charged 5s. extra to cover additional cost of carriage, etc.

In offering our best thanks to all those who favoured us, directly or through our representatives, with information, we wish to state that any suggestion likely to increase the usefulness of the work will have our respectful consideration.

It will be our earnest and constant endeavour in future editions, by accuracy of detail, completeness of information, and the introduction of new features, to merit the continued confidence of the public.

SELECTIONS FROM OPINIONS.

RIGHT HON. W. E. GLADSTONE.

“The beauty of the volume is great, and does much honour to all who have been concerned in its production.”

LORD GLENESK.

“Mr Galletly’s work has a worthy shrine, and will long live as a valuable guide and informant in Norman and Scottish Architecture.”

From the Scotsman.—“The drawings would in themselves be invaluable as documents for study to a man who has no opportunity of visiting the architectural remains from which they are taken; and their value in this respect is much enhanced by the descriptive letterpress that accompanies them.”

From the Journal of the British Archaeological Association.—“Not only architects and antiquarians, but also general lovers of that which is beautiful as well as ancient, will never regret their acquisition of Mr Taylor’s book.”

This is a detailed historical map of the City of Portland, Oregon. The map shows a dense network of streets, including major thoroughfares like Broadway, Commercial Street, and Washington Street. Key landmarks and areas are labeled, such as Baxter Park, the Royal Lunatic Asylum, the Poorhouse, and various docks along the waterfront (Camperdown Dock, Victoria Dock, Harbor Dock). The map also depicts the city's proximity to the Willamette River and the presence of bridges like the Tas. Bridge. A compass rose is located in the upper right corner, indicating the orientation of the map. The title 'CITY OF PORTLAND' is printed vertically along the right edge of the map.
